Alumni from more than 65 class years are back home at the American School of Paris for this weekend's extraordinary Homecoming and Community Celebration. You are here at a pivotal moment in our school's history as we celebrate the 50th anniversary of our installation in Saint-Cloud, the completion of our landmark build project, and the dedication our new 21st century campus. It is truly the occasion to toast the past, present, and future — and we are thrilled so many of you are here this weekend.

Please consider the ASP campus as your home in Paris and come back whenever you can.

On behalf of the Board of Trustees, thank you for your continued support of the American School of Paris.

President, Board of Trustees

2018 Homecoming

AMERICAN SCHOOL of PARIS

Our Homecoming and Community Celebration is a historic gathering for the American School of Paris. With new buildings and refurbishment of all existing spaces, the campus has been transformed — but, at its core, teaching and learning excellence, as well as our compassionate, caring community, remain steadfast.

In designing this special weekend our singleness of purpose was to bring you home — to celebrate your ASP relationships and memories, to reunite and reminisce, and to look forward.

We are confident that this will be a memorable weekend for all in attendance. Welcome Home!

Mark E. Ulfers
Head of School

Mark joined ASP as Head of School in 2010. His prior postings included the Singapore American School, Cyprus International School, Taipei American School, and Frankfurt International School. This summer, Mark will become the Executive Director of the Association for the Advancement of International Education.

From the Advancement Office

Homecoming is finally here and how special it is to welcome you back to ASP! That so many of you are here is a manifestation of both the tightly-knit community that spans the decades and the globe, and the impact of an ASP education. Please contact our alumni team whenever you plan to visit campus, have news to share, seek to reconnect with classmates, or are looking for ways to contribute to the life of the school. We look forward to spending time with you this weekend and to supporting an enduring relationship with the American School of Paris.

Emily Robin
Director of Advancement

Caroline Baugh
Associate Director of Development and Alumni Relations

I am now celebrating 50 years as an ASP community member — 45 years of teaching followed by my encore as your alumni coordinator. Over the decades, it has been a privilege to work with you, and it is wonderful to see so many familiar faces back together this weekend. Let's continue to stay connected, keeping the memories alive and making new ones.

Supporting ASP

Like so many innovative projects and high-impact initiatives across campus, this weekend's Homecoming and Community Celebration has been made possible in part by a grant of the Excellence Fund. Similarly, many members of the ASP community have underwritten faculty and staff tickets for the festivities, ensuring that our talented teachers and dedicated staff can take part in this historic celebration. Please be on the lookout during the weekend for posters acknowledging all the donors who have helped to make Homecoming possible. We could not be celebrating together without your support!

If you haven't already, please consider making a gift online at www.asparis.org/giving or in person at the Alumni Hub in Building 8.

Each and every gift counts and makes a difference to teaching and learning at ASP.

Thank you!

Meet Jane Thompson

American School of Paris Head of School as of July 1, 2018

Jane is joining ASP from the Istanbul International Community School in Turkey, where she has served as Head of School since 2013. Prior to IICS, Jane headed the British International School in Budapest for 11 years. Jane began her career in education in the United Kingdom.

From the moment I learned of this opportunity, I was inspired and humbled by the chance to lead an organization, already outstanding in so many traditional measures, toward a future that redefines the concept of what it means to be an exceptional school.
